

I support satellite radio being able to offer localized traffic and weather service. I am paying for satellite radio. As it is. I don't use my local stations because they do not offer this information in the timeframe in which I need it. Instead, I use a traffic site on the Internet to help me plan my route and travel times.

Ashley Wililams